Artefact variability, Assemblage Differentiation, and Identity Negotiation:
Code-switching in material culture - workshop

University of Copenhagen on Thursday the 10th and Friday the 11th of November 2011. Copenhagen University, Amager, Room 23.4.39

PROGRAM

Thursday the 10th of November
9:00-9:15 Registration
Chairperson: Helle Horsnæs (National Museum)
9:15-9:30 Kristina Winther-Jacobsen (Copenhagen University). Introduction
9:30-10:05 Alexandra Mullen (Oxford University). The bilingualism of material culture?
10:40-10:55 Coffee break
11:30-12:05 Kathryn Lomas (University College London). Language and Iconography: The identity of sub-groups in Italian funerary monuments
12:10-13:00 Discussion
13:00-14:00 Lunch
Chairperson: (Hanne Thomasen)
14:00-14:35 Cecilie Brøns. Fibulae as indicators of identity, and the reconstruction of dress
14:35-15:10 Nora Petersen: Elite, Death and Identity
15:10-15:40 Discussion
15:40-16:00 Coffee break
16:00-16:35 Susanne Kerner (Copenhagen University). Late Chalcolithic–Early Bronze Age transition: Identity and changes in materiality
16:35-17:10 James Schryver (University of Minnesota, Morris). Evolving Identities in Medieval Archaeology: Audience, Context, and Encounter
17:10-18:15 Discussion
19:30 Speakers dinner at Aristo, Islands Brygge 4.

Friday the 11th of November
Chairperson: Pia Guldager Bilde (Aarhus University)
9:00-9:30 Louise Revell (Southampton University). Ways of being Roman: rethinking ethnicity in an imperial context
9:30-10:05 Christina Williamson (Groningen University). Negotiating civic identity through memory management at Hellenistic Labraunda
10:05-10:40 Jane Fejfer (Copenhagen University). Marble-mania: identity negotiating in Roman Cyprus?
10:40-10:55 Coffee break
10:55-11:30 Rick Bonnie (Catholic University Leuven). “What have the Romans ever done for us?” The reception of archaeological material in second-century AD Galilee
11:30-12:05 Tanja Gouda. The process of romanization in the Iberian Peninsula from the perspective of the Iberian cultures
12:05-13:00 Discussion
13:00-14:00 Lunch
Chairperson: John Lund (National Museum)
14:00-14:35 Astrid Van Oyen (Cambridge University). Technological choices and interacting knowledge systems in the production of terra Sigillata
14:35-15:10 Smadar Gabrieli (University of Western Australia). From Chythra to Olla, the shape of culture
15:10-15:25 Coffee break
15:25-16:00 Emanuele Vaccaro (Cambridge University). Pottery for the Roman peasants: patterns of production, trade and consumption
16:00-16:35 Elizabeth Brown (Brown University), Jeroen Poblome (Catholic University Leuven) Daniele Malfitana (Catania University). The more wine, the more mixed identities! A lot of messages on relief decorated wares from late Roman Sagalassos
16:35-16:50 Kristina Winther-Jacobsen (Copenhagen University). Summary
16:50-18:00 Discussion